COLE COUNTY FOR REFERENDUM PLAN

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED ENDORSING ACTION OF STATE HEADS.

BATES COUNTY OPPOSED

Disapproved of Several of the Acts, But Deemed It Unwise at This Time to Interfere.

Jefferson City, April 26.—Resolutions endorsing the action of the Democratic State Committee in favor of referring some of the more obnoxious measures enacted during the last legislature at the instigation of Governor Hyde were adopted by the Cole County Democratic Committee in session Saturday. Chairman W. A. Curtis of the committee as well as three other members protested against such action.

The resolutions adopted by the committee follow:

Whereas, the Democratic State Committee, meeting in conference with representatives of county organizations and Democratic members of the Fifty-first General Assembly, after full consideration, has asked the co-operation of county committees in the work of securing the number of signatures to petitions necessary to invoke the referendum upon certain obnoxious measures passed by the last legislature; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Cole County Democratic Committee, that we concur in the action of this conference and express our willingness to aid in this undertaking, respecting the following bills designated by the State Committee:

1st. Upon the judicial redistricting bill, because it attempts to substitute judges selected by the Governor for judges elected by the people for a definite term;

2nd. Upon the agricultural consolidation bill, because it proposes to create a partisan commission, with a partisan machine in the place of non-partisan boards, such as the State Board of Agriculture, the State Fair Board, the Poultry Board and the Horticultural Board;

3rd. Upon the Public Welfare and Labor Consolidation bills, because they propose the centralization of executive authority with heavily increased burdens upon the taxpayers.

4th. Upon the so-called Budget bill, because it proposes to establish a partisan bureau with vast powers over the state's disbursements, calculated to bring about extreme abuses in administration, with unjustifiable exercise of aribtrary authority;

5th. Upon the bills abolishing the Kansas City Justice Courts, and the Jackson County Criminal Court, upon the ground that these bills establish a precedent constituting a menace to the fundamental principles of representative government by assuming to remove officials elected by the people, and permitting the Executive to appoint their successors without regard to the fixed term of office heretofore confined by law.

Butler, April 26.—The Bates County Democratic central committee, in meeting here, decided the committee would not take any part in the proposed referendum to hold up legislation enacted by the last general assembly. While the committee disapproved the action of several of the acts of the assembly, they deemed it unwise at this time to interfere.

FORMER CONVICT IN TROUBLE IN HOLT CO.

His parole had to be revoked on account of the fact that he couldn't stay away from Burlington Junction.

ZIEGLER TO ENTER CONTESTANTS IN TARKIO MEET MAY 6

Maryville High School Will be Represented in Track, Oratory, Declamation.

Coach Ziegler will enter at least 11 boys for the tri-state track meet at Tarkio May 6. Just who these will be Ziegler has not determined. It depends upon how they work. The ones who will take part in the events will not be chosen until the night before. It is probable that contestants in declamation, oratory and extemporaneous speaking will be entered, also. These contestants will not be selected until the last minte.

This is a pretty big meet to which representatives from schools in Nebraska, Missouri and Iowa will be entered. It is the day before the State Teachers College meet and nothing will be done to interfere with what the contestants may do here, Mr. Ziegler says.

MINISTERS ASSOCIATION MEETS

PRESIDENT TO RECEIVE SUGGESTIONS FOR UNION SERVICES

PLAN FOR THANKSGIVING

Sunday School Superintendents Will Be Invited For Conference At 4 Gatherings This Year.

At the meeting of the ministers' association of Maryville held yesterday afternoon at the Farmers Trust Company it was decided to ask that all suggestions for union services be referred to the president of the association to be acted upon by the association. The regular meeting time of the association was set for the last Monday of each month at 1:30 o'clock. Occasional social meetings will be held to which the wives of the ministers will be invited. In order to solve the problem of the Thanksgiving service it was suggested, that as an experiment, an evening service be held Thanksgiving Eve in which all of the congregations of the churches would participate. The union service in the morning has been so poorly attended that it was abandoned entirely last November. It was thought that a union service the evening before would suit many households and make for a larger attendance.

In order to co-ordinate, develop and cooperate more efficiently in the religious education of the church it was decided that the last meeting of the association of March, June, September and December be a conferenc attended by the superintendents of the various Sunday Schools and a representative of the County Sunday School Association.

Rev. Frank J. Mapel, pastor of the Buchanan Street Methodist Church, president of the association, presided. Those present were Rev. J. A. Cooper, pastor of the Baptist Church; Dr. O. L. Curl, pastor of the Methodist Church; Rev. R. E. Snodgrass, pastor of the Christian Church; Rev. S. P. Allison, pastor of the Presbyterian Church; Rev. S. A. Rear, Maryville Methodist Circuit; Rev. J. M. England, Methodist South Circuit.

NOT COMPLYING WITH STALLION LICENSE LAW

Prosecuting Attorney McCaffrey to Take Steps to Strictly Enforce This Law

Prsecuting Attorney Charles McCaffrey has received a letter from the Missouri Stallion Registry Board relative to complaints being made that there are several stallion owners in this county who are not complying with the stallion license law. According to the law it is not necessary to advertise or bill a horse before taking out a license. A stallion serving mares must take out a license, whether advertised or not. The strict enforcement of this law protects the mare owners, and is protecting the horse industry of Missouri. Another provision is that if stallions have died, or been castrated owners should notify this office. If stallions have been sold, this office should have the name and address of the new owner and the state transfer fee of 50 cents.

WEDDED 64 YEARS APRIL 18TH

MR. AND MRS. ABRAHAM BOOHER WERE MARRIED IN 1847.

HAVE FAMILY DINNER

Lived at Present Home Near Burlington Junction for 47 Years—Have 21 Great GrandChildren.

The sixty-fourth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Booher Sr., living near Burlington Junction, which was April 18, was observed Sunday. At this time, a family dinner was given in observance of the occasion, the inclemency of the weather making it impossible to have the dinner on April 18. At the ages of 86 and 85, Mr. and Mrs. Booher are enjoying life. They have lived at their present home southeast of Burlington Junction for forty-seven years.

Mr. Booher was born in November, 1834, at Berne, Switzerland. He came to the United States in 1853, landing at New Orleans. From there he went to Greene county, Ind., and engaged in farming. Mrs. Booher was born August, 1835, at Bloomfield, Ind., and the marriage took place at Bloomfield on April 18, 1857. They moved to Nodaway county in 1865 and settled on a farm west of Maryville. Seven years later they moved to their present home southeast of Burlington Junction, where they have lived with the exception of two years, when they moved to Burlington Junction and made their home with their daughter, Mrs. Margaret Carter. RESTRICTIONS SWEPT AWAY BY CONGRESS

Nationals of Germany and Austria-Hungary Can Now Be Naturalized As Others Are.

All restrictions have been swept away by new legislation in Congress concerning the naturalization of subjects of the former Empires of Germany and Austria-Hungary. In other words, nationals of these countries can from this time on be naturalized on exactly the same basis as the nationals of other countries. To state the matter in another way, there is no longer any such thing as an enemy alien naturalization restriction. Such information was received today by Circuit Clerk Henry Westfall from the chief naturalization examiner at St. Louis.

Mr. Westfall was urged to bring this matter to the attention of those interested, in this community. Many subjects of the Central Powers have refrained from declaring their intention or petitioning for naturalization, on the belief that such a step was futile, due to the war-time restrictions on ultimate naturalization. With respect to any petitions for naturalization now on file, and that to date could not be acted upon because of the enemy alien origin of the candidates, the department of the naturalization service will on behalf of the government take such steps as may be necessary to bring about a final hearing on the same on the next regular rule day of court governing naturalization cases.

STATE DEPARTMENT SILENT ON GERMAN REPARATIONS NOTE

Will Be Chief Subjects Of Discussion At Cabinet Meeting Today—Arrived in Night.

Washington, April 26.—While the state department officials maintained silence concerning the German note on reparations it was learned today, that the communication came in the night and that its contents probably will be the chief subject of discussion by President Harding and his cabinet when they meet later in the day. It seemed certain today that the state department would not make public the German proposals until they have been considered by Harding, Hughes, and other responsible officials.

The Story of Our States

By JONATHAN BRACE

XXX.—WISCONSIN

THE many cities in Wisconsin with French names show the French influence in its early settlement. The first white man to penetrate this region was Jean Nicollet, who was sent out in 1634 by Champlain to open trade with the Indians. He landed at Green Bay and probably traversed the country to Chicago. Fur traders and missionaries followed and the latter built a mission where Ashland now stands. This was the first church erected in the state and around it sprang up the first permanent settlement. Jollet and Futher Marquette descended the Wisconsin river, and La Salle explored a great deal of Wisconsin before he took his famous trip down the Mississippi. Among the fur traders to come to Wisconsin shores was Daniel du Lhut, after whom the city of Duluth, Minn., was named.

During the Revolution Wisconsin remained loyal to the British and though Wisconsin became a part of the United States by the Treaty of Paris in 1783, it was not until 1816 that federal troops really established authority there. Indian uprisings continued for some time ending only with the Black Hawk war in 1832. Then followed extensive immigration from the New England States.

Wisconsin had formed a part of the Northwest territory until 1809, when it became a part of Michigan territory, under which jurisdiction it remained until 1836, with the exception of nine years, when it was considered a part of Illinois territory. With the admission of Michigan as a state, the Wisconsin territory was created, which included also the present states of Iowa and Minnesota and portions of North and South Dakota.

In 1848 Wisconsin was taken into the Union as the thirtieth state. It has a 56,000 square miles and it had thirteen electoral votes for president.

The state is named after the Wisconsin river. This is an Ojibwa phrase which means "gathering waters." It is sometimes called the Badger State.

DEATH CLAIMS HALF OF ROUMANIA'S CHILDHOOD

Every other child, one out of two, born in the country of Roumania dies before it reaches the age of five years, and 20 children out of every 100 die before they are one year old, according to a statistical report just announced by the American Red Cross.

A large part of this devasting death rate is due to lack of food and proper clothing, and Red Cross efforts abroad are now being concentrated on supplying children with garments and medical care, the adult problem being deemed too great for any single organization to assume.

BLIND 23 YEARS RECOVERS HER SIGHT.

London, April 26.—Pengham, South Wales, the scene of the restoration of a woman's sight after twenty-three years of blindness, has provided a new sensation.

A schoolgirl resident who had been ill with lung trouble was laid out for dead. When the coffin arrived on the third day a light was taken into the room. The girl immediately sat up in bed and asked: "Where is dad?" The father rushed into the room and carried the girl into another room so that the girl should not see she had been laid out for dead. She has since recovered.

Lesher was recently informed of a $2,036,000 fortune bequeathed him by a Philadelphia relative, and immediately won widespread publicity by announcing that he would use a portion of the wealth to build a home for indigent laborers.

FRANCE IS WARNED SHE WILL FALL

AS ROMAN EMPIRE FELL BECAUSE OF HER IMMORALITY

DECRIES LACK OF MORALS

French Senator Warned The French Senate During A Debate On Public Morals.

Paris, April 26.—The French Republic will fall as the Roman Empire fell unless the Government begins an active campaign against immorality on the stage, in the literature of the day and in styles of women's clothing, Senator de Lamarzelle warned the French Senate during a debate on public morals that lasted more than two hours.

Even France's great art museums are becoming infected, the Senator charged. He alleged that rooms formerly given over to the display of priceless tapestries are now filled with modern paintings in the nude.

Senator de Lamarzelle's outburst came in the midst of a discussion of a law to prevent the distribution of birth-control propoganda. He declared the Government might take far more effective steps to prevent depopulation by inculcating better morals.

"I want to ask what the government has done to prevent the sale of licentious literature," said the Senator. "I want to know what steps have been taken to prevent the production on the stage of immoral spectacles and plays that are ruining the youth of France, and what the Government has done to prevent immoral displays by underdressed women in the very streets, the subways and the street cars.

Nudity Is Theme

"Let me cite one revue now appearing at the biggest Paris music hall, 'L'Amour en Folie.' Here is the programme as it is advertised in large posters all over Paris: 'Competition of Nude Backs,' 'The Fan of Women's Bodies, Pushing to the Uttermost Limit Audacity in Production.'

"Here is a second example—a piece called 'Mais les hommes n'en saurnet rien,' so scandalous that one newspaper critic declared that it was impossible for him to review it and another wrote for his newspaper that the text was so bad that he must describe it in Greek. I had a translation made from the Greek and found it to be a discription of monstrous vices.

"Another filthy piece played 200 consecutive nights in Paris and when the Mayor of the town in the provinces was asked to stop it he replied that he could not see his way fit to act since the Paris police has permitted the performance. This same Mayor permitted lewd pictures, advertising the play to be posted all over the town, even on the walls of a young girls' school.

Demoralizing Poster

"Return to Paris. Before my door, on a column across the street, is another theatre advertisement, representing a woman nearly nude. The title of the peice is unspeakable. All over Paris I see another poster of a show entitled: 'Oh, No—Not Entirely Nude,' with a life-sized picture of a woman wearing only a pair of stockings. It appears that a nude woman may appear on the stage in Paris without shocking public sense of shame so long as she wears a single fragment of cloth or a jewel.

"But it is not necessary to go to the theatre. Certain things may be seen in the public places, in the streets, in the subway, in the autobuses that the police regard with complacent eyes. There is the danger of the theatre, the exploitation of vice descends into the streets and finds its way into public morals. Young boys and young girls see these things and you can readily understand the lesson they draw from them."

Replying to Senator de Lamarzelle, the Minister of Interior recalled that the prefects of police had full powers to supress immoral plays and that as a result of the Senator's protest a few months ago certain immoral productions were withdrawn and others were altered. He promised however to call another meeting of the prefects and urge a closer supervision of Paris theatres and theatrical posters.

BRITISH LABOR WOMEN MEET

WILL HOLD NATIONAL CONFERENCE AT MANCHESTER TODAY

CRITICIZE DIPLOMACY

Standard of Living—High Prices Education—Profiteering To Be Discussed.

London, April 26.—When the first National Conference of Labor Women meets at Manchester to-day a number of matters of national and international importance will be discussed.

There will be a general condemnation of the Government's actions and attitude in Ireland. Resolutions will be presented ranging all the way from a demand for the withdrawal of troops to a suggestion for an immediate election to determine the exact form of government to be established in the country.

The standing joint committee of Industrial Women's Organizations will propose that, in addition to withdrawing all armed forces the British Government shall place the responsibility for maintaining order in each locality in Ireland on the local authorities and that an election shall be held at once of an open constituent assembly, empowered to work out, without limitations or fetters, whatever constitution for Ireland, the Irish people desire.

Women May Aid Ireland

The resolution also requests that all the women of this country should join with them in helping to put this policy into force and thus end the present intolerable conditions for the people of Ireland.

The Fabian Society goes further, saying:

"This conference wishes to express its deep sense of shame at the state of disorder in Ireland. While denouncing all acts of bloodshed and violence, it lays the blame for the present reign of terror on the dishonest and brutal methods of the Government. It calls upon the latter to withdraw the armed forces of the Crown and to establish Home Rule subject to a guarantee being given by a responsible Irish Parliament for the protection of religious and other minorities."

Condemn Irish Policy.

The Women's Section of the Dulwich Labor Party will present a resolution asking the conference to condemn the policy of the Government in Ireland and demand the immediate withdrawal of all the troops.

A revision of the Peace Treaty is to be suggested by the standing joint committee. It demanded the repeal of the Reparations Act and the withdrawal of "sanctions," together with the reopening of negotiations with Germany so that the money paid by that county will be reasonable in amount and be made in such a manner that it will not be injurious to the industrial life and trade of the countries concerned.

That cooperative and non-profitable making organizations should handle whatever credits might be given to countries which have fallen into economic ruin is a further suggestion of the comminttee and the resolution ends with the statement:

Favor New League.

"The ionference expresses its regret that the League of Nations has failed so far to influence the world towards peace and believes that failure is due to the fact that it has acted as a league of powerfo' governments instead of a league of peoples. It believes that the road to peace is open, but that is can only be reached if the old system of the balance of power and of great armaments is set aside and the peoples of the world come together with mutual good-will ready to co-operate with one another for the common advantage of all."

The women Worker's Section of the National Union of General Workers, the Fabian Society, the Women's Section of the Ilford Labor Party and other women's branches of the various bodies, all intend presenting resolutions condemning the Allies' drastic attitude toward Germany and requesting that trade be re-opened at once not only with that country, but also with Russia and Austria.

The official adoption of Esperanto as an international language is to be urged by one body of women, together with an exchange of male and female apprentices in all countries.

Criticize Secret Diplomacy.

The system of secret diplomacy as practised by the British Foreign Office is criticized by the King's Lynn Labor Party, which demands that any diplomatic agreements with foreign Powers should be openly arrived at so that the people may know of all such transactions and agreements.

"The Standard of Living," "High Prices and Profiteering," "Education" and "Workmen's Compensation" are a few of the other subjects which will be touched on during the conference.

The conference will end with an address by the Right Honorable Arthur Henderson on "The Labor Party and Ireland."

TAKES CARE OF 5 CHILDREN

Mrs. Taylor's Sickness Ended by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Roxbury, Mass.—"I suffered continually with backache and was often despondent, had dizzy spells and at my monthly periods it was almost impossible to keep around at my work. Since my last baby came two years ago my back has been worse and no position I could get in would relieve it, and doctor's medicine did not help me. A friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I have found great relief since using it. My back is much better and I can sleep well. I keep house and have the care of five children so my work is very trying and I am very thankful I have found the Compound such a help. I recommend it to my friends and if you wish to use this letter I am very glad to help any woman suffering as I was until I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. MAUDE E. TAYLOR, 5 St. James Place, Roxbury, Mass.

Backache is one of the most common symptoms of a displacement or derangement of the female system. No woman should make the mistake of trying to overcome it by heroic endurance, but profit by Mrs. Taylor's experience and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

One Born Every Fourth Minute

A lady who had a family of three children didn't want any more because she had heard that every fourth child born in the world was a Chinaman.

As ludicrous, perhaps, as an old misconception some skeptical folks used to have about advertising.

There was a time, when some advertisements had to be taken with a grain of salt. A few misguided advertisers thought they could sell their goods better by misrepresenting them. Those advertisers have long since gone out of business or mended their ways. Hard experience taught that untruthful advertising didn't pay.

Other advertisers proved that the only way to advertise successfully, make regular customers, and build up good will was to tell the absolute truth about their goods in their advertisements.

You can depend on the merchant or manufacturer who advertises. The concern that tells you frankly what it is doing is a good concern with which to do business. The store that advertises is a progressive store that has something really worth while to say to you. And companies that advertise their products or their service have confidence in them. You can safely share their confidence.

Inferior merchandise cannot masquerade in the quality clothes of advertising.

FREE CORN TRANSPORTATION DISCONTINUED SAYS KEMP

S. H. Plans had been arranged to ship a car load of Gift corn from Nodaway County if it had been possible to get free transportation. However, the Near East Relief is still in need of funds, and Mr. Kemp will take charge of any gifts of money and will remit the money to state headquarters once each week. A gift of $25 sent to Mr. Kemp for the purchase of corn when plans for the car load of Gift corn were made, will be sent in with the weekly remittance.

TO RETAIN DRAFT FINGER PRINTS

GOVERNMENT ESTABLISHES BUREAU OF IDENTIFICATION

Washington, D. C. April 26—In the identification section of the War Department in the old Ford Theatre, where Abraham Lincoln was shot, there has been collected a mass of evidence which is expected during the years to come to play an important part in the conviction of thousands of criminals, and likewise to and in the exoneration of perhaps other thousands of innocent men who through force of circumstances become the objects of suspicion.

The evidence in question is the finger print records of more than 5,000,000 men whose imprints were taken when they came in contact with the machinery of the selective service organization of the War Department during the war. Scarcely a day passes that the War Department is not called upon by the police of various cities and towns throughout the country to try to identify the finger prints of some one who has been involved in a crime or fatal accident.

Helped Solve Wanderer Case.

A recent inquiry frod Chicago in connection with the notorious Carl Wanderer murder case is perhaps typical. "The Ragged Stranger," who is alleged to have been shot by Lieutenant Wanderer while the stranger was staging a fake hold-up for which Wanderer had paid him a small sum of money, had never been satisfactorily identified. The police believed him to be Earl Keessee, of Milwaukee, and that he had served in the army either under the name of Keessee or that of Edward Morgan, of Texas.

Knowing that the finger-print records of every man who had served in the army since the identification system was installed were on file with the War Department, they sent the imprints of the "Ragged Stranger's" fingers to Washington for comparison. Investigation showed that a man named Earl Keessee had inlisted in the army from Milwaukee, but the finger prints of Keessee were different from those of the "Ragged Stranger." It was found that no less than six Edward Morgans had served in the army and that two of them were from Texas, but the finger prints of the man slain in Chicago did not tally with those of any of the Edward Morgans who had served in the army.

Handy For Sheriffs.

So prolific has the identification section of the army become as a means of capturing criminals, that every now and then the department has to squelch some ambitious sheriff who tries to make the service pay him dividends. The method ordinarily used is simple. A sheriff makes a collection of notices of reward offered for the capture of criminals. Then he arrests every tramp that comes his way, takes his finger prints and sends them to the War Department in Washington for identification. As the War Department has the finger print records of practically every able bodied young man in the United States, it often happens the War Department is able to tell the sheriff the name of the man he has in custody.

Thereupon the sheriff checks over his list of rewards offered and if he finds the captive's name among them he immediately notifies the persons offering the reward and then proceeds to collect.

The identification section of the War Department is in charge of Walter S. Kaye, who was the organizer of the first "identity section" in use in the War Department. The main purpose of the identity section is to identify unknown dead in time of war, and to keep undesirable ex-service men from re-enlisting under assumed names. Lately it has been supplying identification records to soldiers, necessary in securing discharges, and in addition has been a source of great assistance to the police in identifying criminals among discharged service men.

LIVE STOCK PRICES LOWER—HOGS UDER EIGHT CENTS

Kansas City Stock Yards, April 26.—With the largest cattle receipts of the season in Chicago, and liberal supplies elsewhere, prices were lower. Here the decline was 15 to 25 cents, the market into a new low position for the year. Trade was dull at the decline. Hogs were 15 to 25 cents lower, and under the 8 cent level for the first time in several years past. The top price was $7.95 and bulk of sales $7.25 to $7.85. Some Texas sheep and goats were offered. The best fed sheep and lambs were strong and others lower.

Today's Receipts

Receipts today were 15,500 cattle, 14,500 hogs, and 14,000 sheep, compared with 10,000 cattle, 4500 hogs, and 5000 sheep a week ago, and 6600 cattle, 8850 hogs, and 7650 sheep a year ago.

Beef Cattle

More than 50 percent larger supplies of cattle, at the principal markets today than a week ago brought fresh declines in prices. Fat grades were down 25 cents. Chicago had 26,000 cattle or nearly one-half the combined supply at the five Western markets. Fat steers predominated there, but here receipts were fairly well divided between stocker and fat grades. Early sales to killers were mostly at $7.50 to $8.25. Cows and heifers were 10 to 15 cents lower, and yearlings and mixed yearlings were down 10 to 25 cents. Veal calves were steady to 25 cents lower.

Stockers and Feeders.

With receipts liberal prices for stockers and feeders were lower. There was a fairly good demand on pasture accounts, but inquiry from feeders was small. Reports state that the movement of Southwest cattle to Northern grass is well under way.

Hogs.

Hog prices declined 15 to 25 cents to a new low level for the year. The top price $7.95 and bulk of sales $7.25 to $7.85 were 40 to 50 cents lower than a week ago, and about $2.00 under the close of last month. Light weight grades have declined more than the weighty classes, and packers now are taking a larger percent of the offerings than formerly. Pigs and stock hogs were fully steady with last week's close at $7.50 to $8.50.

Sheep and Lambs

The first liberal supply of Texas sheep and goats offered this season were on today's market. Most of the clipped sheep sold at $6.25 to $6.80 and few goats were sold up to noon. Fed sheep and lambs were strong to 10 cents higher, top lambs $10.35 with bulk of sales $10.00 up. Killers appear anxious for fed grades.

Horses And Mules

Trade in horses and mules was fairly active at steady prices. Fairly good quality prevailed. Some common kinds were unsold.

U.S. LEGION IS SUSPECTED IN JAPAN

FAIL TO INTERPRET MEANING OF ORGANIZATION IN NIPPON

ARE RESERVISTS, BELIEF

It is Known That America Does Not Have System—No Excuse For Such Suggestions.

Tokio, April 26.—The American Legion member in Tokio the morning after a legion meeting, feels somewhat like the hero in a Sherlock Holmes detective story. Referred to in an aside by the Japanese clerk in the office as an "American lieutenant," looked upon with some suspicions by his servants, who perhaps know, too, that he is connected with the organization of "American soldiers," as they are known, he is in a peculiar position.

It is a fact that one American who holds a responsible position in Tokio, a position which carries with it the impression that he may know something of the plans of Uncle Sam in the Far East, was recently away from his office for a few hours when a Japanese employed in the firm asked a comrade of this American, also identified actively with the Tokio-Yokohama post of the American, post of the American Legion, "how many Germans did he kill in France?"

Japanese, despite continued attempts at explanations, are unable to get the Americans' real meaning of the American Legion. Translated into Japanese the expression American Legion means "Gungin Dan," or "legion of military men." Going on this translation the Japanese who sees a legion member immediately takes him for an American military reservist, and despite the fact that Americans here frequently take the trouble to explain this fact, there seems to be no way of sufficiently convincing the Japanese that the "Gungin dan" is not a body of men with concealed arms and ammunition, ready for an attack on their hosts.

Japs In Hawaii

"The American Legion," said an old American resident of Tokio recently, "is misunderstood in Japan much the same way that Japanese living in Hawaii is misunderstood. It is a fact that many Americans think that the Japanese in Hawaii is really a military man of Japan; that he is ready at any minute to go to war with America, and is always active in serving the cause of Japan. The Japanese suspect the Americans in the American Legion somewhat the same way, and insist on believing them military reservists."

An American Legion man, interviewed on the subject in Tokio recently, said: "The difference between the American Legion man and the Japanese citizen is a marked one and while that is one reason why the ignorant Japanese thinks the legion is a 'reservist' organization, it does not excuse the educated Japanese, who pretends to look upon us with so much suspicion. An American cannot be a 'reservist' by being in the legion, and it is known that America does not have the system that Japan has, and which compels the Japanese to be a real 'reservist.' Because the Japanese must be a reservist, due to the militaristic laws of the country, he feels that the American Legion is just a bit of camouflage to conceal a group of American reservists in Japan."

Tomorrow.

How sweet a consolation there is in that little word "tomorrow!" The poets have given it an unduly melancholy tang—probably because "sorrow" and "borrow" are the only ready rhymes for it. You can never trust a poet to tell the truth when he is pinched for rhymes.

For poor, easy going humanity "tomorrow" solves all problems. Tomorrow (we trustfully say) the shirts will come back from the laundry; we will write that letter to Bill we will give up smoking; we will be brave enough not to temper our cold bath with warm water. Tomorrow, after we have had a refreshing sleep, we will compose the immortal poem; we will refashion our life on an austere, reasonable philosophy; we will get our hair cut; we will astonish the boss.

Humanity must be fond of tomorrow, because there is always so much work being saved for that occasion.

He that works tomorrow will triumph yesterday.

It is sad to reflect that for each of us there is coming the day with no tomorrow.—New York Evening Sun.

The Wants of A Pioneer.

Writing to the editor of the Palimpsest, John P. Irish recounts some of the hardships of Iowa pioneer life and tells the story of one of those pioneer women and her granddaughter, who asked:

"Grandma, you were here in the early days?"

"Yes, I was a pioneer."

"Well, were you poor?"

"Yes, we were all poor."

"Couldn't you have what you wanted?"

"No I could not."

"Did you have no meat?"

"No, nothing but venison, wild turkeys, prairie chickens and quails."

"Didi you have no sugar?"

"Nothing but maple sugar."

"What did you want that you couldn't get?"

"It was New Orleans molasses and salt mackerel."

"Well, were you poor."

The Ford One-Ton Truck has cut "delivery costs" for thousands of business houses, farmers, factories, corporations, etc. Thousands of owners attest to its economy of operation and maintenance. They call the Ford a real "necessity" in their business. Ask us for a copy of the "Ford—A Business Utility." Read what pleased owners say. It will cost you nothing.

Built of tough Ford steel with the ever-dependable Ford motor transmitting power to the aluminum-bronze worm drive, with demountable rims and pneumatic tires, front and rear, together with the mechanical simplicity, have helped to give the Ford Ton Truck the lowest possible operating and maintenance cost. It is the lowest priced one-ton motor truck on the market. Add to these practical merits our after-service organization, which insures every truck owner of genuine Ford parts and skilled Ford mechanics, so that the Ford Truck need never be out of service.

To sum up: Serviceability, flexibility, power, durability, lowest first and operating costs, service, all together, are the Ford qualities which cut down expense and will help you cut your "delivery costs."
